

MEETING HELD IN COOPERATION WITH
WORLD TRADE WEEK

Monday, May 8, 2017

SPEAKER:

James C. Trainor
Sr. Vice President, Aon
Former FBI, Cyber Division

Topic: “Cyber Threat Landscape 2017 and Beyond”

James C. Trainor is Senior Vice President within Aon’s Cyber Solutions Group. Mr. Trainor joined Aon after a distinguished career at the Federal Bureau of Investigation, where he most recently led the Cyber Division at FBI Headquarters.

Mr. Trainor played a critical role in devising the FBI’s national strategy to combat cyber-crime and was the senior FBI executive responsible for all cyber investigations. During his three year tenure in the Cyber Division, Mr. Trainor led FBI Agents and Analysts in every major high-profile cyber investigation involving the FBI.

Mr. Trainor joined the FBI as a Special Agent in 1996. Over his twenty year FBI career, he served in both overseas and domestic assignments focused on cyber, counterintelligence, counterterrorism, intelligence and criminal matters. He has served in field assignments in Chicago; New Haven, CT; Boston; New York City and at FBI Headquarters in Washington, DC.

Mr. Trainor will discuss the cyber threat landscape, significant intrusions over the past few years, phases of a cyber-attack and cyber threat actors. Organizations face different threats depending on size, industry and type of company. He will address the different ways these companies can prevent and mitigate risks.
